Teacher Appreciation Week

May 7-11, 2012

Since 1984, PTA has designated the first full week in May as National Teacher Appreciation Week, a special time to honor the men and women who lend their passion and skills to educating our children. The week allows us to thank the teachers and staff for their dedication to education excellence and service to our children and community.

Responsibilities: To coordinate the activities, decorations, and logistics for the event week along with the Room Parents. To keep records and attend scheduled planning and post-event meetings as called.

Uniform Swap Committee

Dates based on committee input

To help parents with the costs associated with participating in the school's uniform policy, a swap program would allow students moving on to middle school or returning students going through the natural growth cycle to turn in uniform pieces allowing others a selection from which to "shop" from.

Responsibilities: To coordinate the schedule, activities, logistics for a clothing swap to accept gently worn uniform pieces and spirit wear for students and parents to shop with other gently worn uniform pieces. To publicize the event to the students. To keep accurate records and attend scheduled planning and post-event meetings as called.

Volunteer Appreciation Committee

April 16-20, 2012

We take the time to honor the individuals who take action throughout the school year to enhance and support our children's education. This is the time to recognize the incalculable contributions of people who dedicate themselves to lend a hand, solve problems, and be a part of the school community. Established in 1974, National Volunteer Week has grown exponentially in scope each year. This year's theme: Celebrating People in Action.

Responsibilities: To coordinate the activity with CES staff. To keep records and attend scheduled planning and post-event meetings as called.

Yearbook Committee
